hicot business community. George and Joan purchased the former Holst's General Store and later founded Krause's Shopping Center of Mishicot and Denmark.

After expanding the store to where the Mishicot Family Market was located on Main Street, George and Joan founded The Dairy Bar, Chris Cakes and Krause's Catering Service.

In July of 1996, George and Joan sold their businesses and retired but remained in the community.

George and Joan contributed to the community in many other ways as well. George was a fourth-degree Knights of Columbus member, a 50-year member of the Catholic Knights and a member of the Holy Name Men's Society.

George and Joan spent many hours applying for the Wisconsin Main Street Community Program, which was eventually granted. They were also a major sponsor of the Lakeshore Hall of Fame.

In addition, the Krauses were members of the Wisconsin State Grocer's Association and the National Association of Retail Bakers. They were also involved in planning Wisconsin's and Mishicot's sesquicentennial celebrations.

Throughout their lives, George and Joan were very dedicated to making Mishicot a better place to live and work.

Also receiving the honor was Don Rehbein, a proud alumnus of Zander Grade School (1940) and Rockwood High School (1944).

Julie Wojta, who was a standout, three-sport athlete during her career at Mishicot High School, graduating in 2007.

She was a two-time state qualifier in the shot put during her sophomore and junior years. Wojta finished her basketball career with 1,006 career points.

Wojta pursued her love for basketball at the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay from 2008-2012. During her senior year, she earned the Horizon League's Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year recognition.

In addition to her Horizon League accomplishments, Wojta also was awarded the following local and national collegiate awards: Chancellor's Leadership Medallion, Beth Ganz Award, Cecil N. Coleman Medal of Honor, Team MVP, John R. Wooden All American Award Finalist, Naismith Watch List and Wade Finalist.

Wojta graduated as an Academic All-American, earning a bachelor's degree in accounting. She placed in UW-Green Bay's top 10 all-time leaders in double-doubles, points, steals, assists, rebounds and free throws.
